CONTRACTOR LANGEFELD

IN COURT
Pleased Guilty to Charges of Intoxication and Breach of Peace and Paid $12.20 Fine.

The unusual spectacle of having a prominent man in court drew a large crowd to police court Saturday morning. Contractor A. J. Langefeld of Hartford, who has the contract for paving Main street in this city, was released after a 5-15 Friday evening on $100 bail furnished by C. E. Leonard, who was the only man before the court with a charge preferred against him. He entered a plea of guilty to both charges, intoxication and breach of peace. Captain Richmond told the court the entire circumstances surrounding the case and then Deputy James A. Shea asked Mr. Langefeld if he would say what he had to say in his own defense. He did not. The court, therefore, imposed a fine of $12 and costs for the first offense and $15 and costs for the second, amounting to $12.20. The fine was paid. The prosecution was well fitted with the evidence and the defense was being there that have made up the major portion of the daily gallery along the Main street box.

DEAD BODY OF MALE CHILD

Woman, Who Will Be Charged with Some Form of Murder.

Sophie Wolinska, a Polish woman, aged about 25, is being held at the police station pending an inquiry by Colonel Arthur G. Bill of Danbury at ten o'clock today (Monday). In all probability some form of murder will be charged against her.
About 11 o'clock Sunday forenoon, three boys, Walter Novak and Philip Leo Moore, who were fishing in the Willimantic river near Sodom dam, discovered the nude body of a male child on the lower lip of what is known as Sodom dam. The body was about 15 feet long and about 15 feet from the dam and about fifty feet from the east end.
The boys notified the police and Capt. E. H. Richmond with Officer Thomas Gray, after the captain had telephoned Medical Examiner Louis J. Mason, went to the dam and took the body of the child to the police station. The body was in charge of Officer Grady and immediately started out on the body. His suspicion was aroused to the extent that there were a number of clues to follow.
It was about 12:15 or so when the captain left the dam and went to a house at 20 Lafayette street in the Polish settlement began to make inquiries. When he asked for a certain woman who was known to have left the mill one day last week rather suddenly he could not get much information, but he was told that the woman had been seen at the dam. The captain then went to the dam and found the body of the child. He was told that the woman had been seen at the dam. He was told that the woman had been seen at the dam. He was told that the woman had been seen at the dam. He was told that the woman had been seen at the dam.

Death of Miss Amy Rogers.

Miss Amy Rogers, aged 16, died at St. Joseph's hospital late Saturday afternoon. The body was in charge of the funeral director H. N. Penn.

came from East Granby here for treatment some time ago. No information could be obtained from the hospital and Mr. Penn had received no communication from the young lady's relatives up to a late hour Sunday afternoon.
